Step 2: Membership Type

Affiliate / Vendor

Organizations providing services and products to the home care industry. (Complete page 2)

Out-of-State Provider

Direct providers of home care service who are located or provide services to clients outside the State of California.

Registry / Referral Agency

Organizations which do not employ the workers who provide services in clients' homes, such as nurse registries, employment agencies and domestic referral agencies. (Complete page 2)

Individual

Staff of provider members, students, volunteers, Boards of Directors, academicians/researchers, or any other individual not otherwise associated with an organization providing home care products or services. If you are an employee of a home care or hospice agency that is not a CAHSAH member, your employing agency must first join as a provider member before you may apply for individual membership. Individuals who have applied for a home health agency license may become personal members pending approval of their license. After obtaining a license, they must become a provider member.

Step 3: Voluntary Contributions

Voluntary contributions are one time payments unless specific arrangements are made.

PAC/LAF contribution (10% of your total dues suggested)
$ _____

The PAC (Political Action Committee) and LAF (Legislative Action Fund) allow CAHSAH to educate legislators about home care issues which affect your industry. PAC/LAF contributions are not deductible as charitable contributions.
